

Bookseller Praise for The Crying Tree

"This beautiful book has been making its way among our staff members, who pass it on with hushed excitement: 'Read this; it's incredible.' ...Thank you, Naseem, for a book that we want to recommend to everyone."

—Annie Bloom,
Annie Bloom's Books

"This ultimately beautiful and hopeful novel of the impact of the death penalty on all who are touched by it is reminiscent of Dead Man Walking and A Lesson Before Dying, and very much worth the emotional investment... Book clubs owe it to themselves to share this significant and thoughtful novel."

—Cheryl McKeon,
Third Place Books

The Crying Tree
by Naseem Rakha

$14.00 • 978-0-7679-3174-8

"This is why we are booksellers, and why we choose book awards."

—Thom Chambliss,
executive director of the Pacific Northwest
Book Association

"Deception, love, and deep-rooted forgiveness make this the perfect book for book club discussion. A book not to be missed on your reading list!"

—Donna Fell,
Sparta Books

"Wow! Incredible! This will definitely be HUGE for bookclubs."

—Linda Grana,
Lafayette Books

The San Francisco Chronicle Bestseller and 2010 PNBA Book Award Winner

Also available as an eBook
(978-0-7679-3220-2)

www.NaseemRakha.com
www.BroadwayBooks.com

Now in Paperback